FOARD & STOKES CO.

Superintendent Kearney and his employees were busy yesterday sluicing the dirt from Commercial street.

See the window display in the Owl Drug Store of the celebrated Eastman kodaks and supplies. New stock just received.

W. J. Hess has opened the cleanest and best appointed restaurant in Astoria at 120 Eleventh street. The best the market, and the promptest service.

There is nothing nicer for breakfast than George's Eastern Codfish. It cooks white and tender.

FOARD & STOKES CO.

R. M. Gaston, at his feed stable No. 105 14th street, offers for sale a Landis harness machine; one butcher's wall scales, will be sold cheap.

The next attraction at Fisher's opera houses will be the L. R. Stockwell company, which will present the "Hon. John North," a farce comedy.

We have a few Wild Blackberries left, put up in quart and half-gallon jars. They are very nice.

FOARD & STOKES CO.

Mrs. Oscar Olsen of Deep River is reported seriously ill at her residence and the Shamrock made a special trip yesterday to take over a physician.

R. M. Gaston carries a full and complete line of wagons, buggies, plows, harrows and all kinds of farm tools and machinery at 105 Fourteenth street, Astoria, Ore.

The Owapumpum club and the Skamokawa club will play ball this afternoon on the A. F. C. recreation grounds and the game will be called at 2 o'clock. The teams are evenly matched and an interesting game is looked for.

Everyone should lend their aid and support to the library entertainment to be given at Fisher's opera house this month. The money derived will be used for purchasing new books for the library and is a most commendable object.

James Jenkins of Skamokawa died at St. Mary's hospital early yesterday morning after a long illness. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon from Pohl's undertaking parlors and the interment will be at Greenwood.

One of the most handsomely decorated stores in Astoria, suggestive of Easter, is the mammoth clothing emporium of S. Danziger. Hundreds of people were attracted to the store yesterday and last evening and the managers were highly complimented for their appropriate decorations.

The Astoria delegation to the A. O. U. W. grand lodge returned yesterday. Everyone of them were opposed to the new assessment plan, but as long as it has been adopted they acquiesce in the will of the majority. A number of the older members were interviewed yesterday and everyone expressed himself as being opposed to the outrageous actions and a number of them will quit the organization.

Letters received in this city from O. A. Campbell, who was summoned to Los Angeles on account of the serious illness of his wife, are to the effect that she is recovering. Mr. Campbell will probably start for home this week.

A large number of people from the country were in the city yesterday. Most of them put up at Gaston's feed stables and the fact that over 25 people fed their horses there yesterday shows the large number of people that were in the city.

Jack Wilson, a member of the Finnish Brotherhood of Astoria and who is sick at the Portland hospital, was visited by Police Officer Thompson, who found him improving and it was decided not to bring him to this city for the present.

The special sale at Foard & Stokes yesterday was a grand success and was attended by a large number of the ladies who took advantage of the bargains offered. This popular firm is now recognized as one of the popular bargain houses of the city.

Dirt cheap: Three good second-hand sewing machines; must be sold Monday and Tuesday. Two machines, slightly used, will be sold at big discount. New machines for rent. Expert repair a specialty. Singer Sewing Machine Co., 121 10th street, Astoria.

Deputy Fish Commissioner Burton captured two set nets in the vicinity of Mayor's Friday and confiscated them. Condemnation proceedings will be commenced this week and the confiscated property sold. The owners never come around to claim the property.

The committee in charge of the annual anniversary entertainment of the Odd Fellows lodge of Astoria is busily engaged in formulating the program which will be given in this city on April 27. It promises to be an enjoyable entertainment profuse with new features.

Work on the improvement of Franklin avenue is progressing and the north side has been completed nearly to the Clatsop mill and a few plank have been laid on the south side. An effort will be made to complete the improvement by the first of next month, although it is doubtful.

President Brumback of the McMinnville college arrived in Astoria last evening on a visit to Astoria. While here he will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Estes, whose daughters have been attending the school. Today Prof. Brumback will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church, both morning and evening.

The first dance of the Astoria hose team was given last evening at Hanthorn's hall under the direction of Prof. Fred Brown. The hall was filled with a happy throng of prominent people and a very enjoyable time was had. These dances will be given every Saturday night in the future, the proceeds to be used in defraying the expenses of the hose team to the Portland tournament.

A petition was circulated and signed by nearly all of the leading tax-payers of the city, addressed to the school board, asking that body to increase the salaries of the teachers of Astoria. The prevailing sentiment in Astoria is that the teachers are not paid commensurate with the salaries paid in other cities. The laborer is worthy of his hire is an admonition that applies with peculiar force to the teachers of Astoria.

The funeral of the late Albin Palmberg was held yesterday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of W. C. A. Pohl and was largely attended by friends of the deceased. It was held under the auspices of Astoria lodge, B. P. O. Elks, of which deceased was a member of the Skagway lodge. Rev. A. G. E. Rydquist preached the funeral sermon and paid a glowing tribute to the many qualities of the deceased, who was honored and respected by all who knew him.

The regular meeting of the common council will be held tomorrow night, at which time the veto message of Mayor Surprenant, vetoing the ordinance imposing a license on drygoods, clothing and boot and shoe merchants will come up. There is no doubt but the veto will be sustained. It is not probable that any other ordinance will be introduced to take its place, as the committee has not had time to draw an ordinance that will be acceptable to all the merchants.

The justice court was occupied yesterday administering a lecture to a number of juvenile offenders. Two boys were arrested for stealing a bicycle which they sold for $1, and three other boys were arrested for disturbing the peace of Upper Astoria by firing off guns. Judge Goodman administered a little fatherly advice and dismissed the cases. There are about 100 boys in Astoria that either need a guardian appointed for them or they will land in the reform school. Astoria boys, with a few exceptions are simply young hoodlums, and the fault is with the parents.

The Astorian called attention to the vetoing of the fish bill passed at the last session of the legislature prohibiting fishing with seines on any of the sand bars of the upper river, which were the natural spawning grounds. Yesterday F. A. Seufert, the democratic member of the third house had five seines operating on the sands. These seines catch all of the fish, both large and small and have done more to destroy the industry than any other cause. But Seufert is a democrat. So is the governor.

The fishing season opened yesterday noon and a large number of fishing boats went out. It was reported that a number of boats started out Friday night, but the patrol boat which was out all night, reports that no boats were out. Several boats commenced making deliveries to the canneries last evening, but most of the boats will deliver this morning. Fishermen who came in last evening report that there was a good run of fish at the bar, but very few up the river. It is evident that the fish have not commenced to come in as yet.

Are You Sure

That you are getting the best potatoes the market affords. You will be, if you order a sack of our fancy

COLORADO POTATOES.

They came from the state of Colorado, near the town of Greeley, where the soil is especially adapted to potato raising. Grown several thousand feet above sea level in a sandy soil, not unduly moist, these potatoes are thin-skinned and when served at your table, have just the right flavor. They are just

DELICIOUS AND MEALY.

Why not try a sack today. The price is the same as on other potatoes—
